Fa'fax Divine, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Divine. Prominent Wedding.

A wedding of much interest in fashionable circles in Washington and Richmond was celebrated on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the bride's home, 1735 I Street, in Washington, when Miss Mabel Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cross Johnson, was married to Marshall Langhorne, secretary of the American embassy at The Hague. Their marriage was set for Easter, and the groom was detained in Europe on official duty, only arriving in this country a few days ago. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the two families and a group of intimate friends, by Rev. George W. Douglass, of the Cathedral of New York, assisted by Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, of Washington. Dr. Cary Langhorne was his brother's best man, and Mr. and Mrs. Langhorne left immediately for a brief honeymoon.

WANAMAKER DELAYS TRIP

Will Not Attempt to Cross Atlantic in Flying Boat Until After the War.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., May 30.—Officials of the Atlantic Coast Aero-nautical Station here say that Rodman Wanamaker will not attempt to cross the Atlantic until the end of the European war, regardless of how soon the mammoth flying boat being constructed for him is completed. Submarines and aircraft of the warring nations are feared by the airman, as the giant craft easily might be mistaken for a hostile machine.

Advices from Buffalo state that the parts of the huge plane are nearly completed and will be shipped here in a short time. Unofficial advice state that an instructor in the local school may make the flight with Wanamaker.

FIFTY SUBMARINES FAVORED BY HOUSE

Amendment to Naval Bill Is Passed Increasing the Number From Twenty.

OTHER PROPOSALS DEFEATED

These Include Provision of Six Battle Cruisers Instead of Five and Addition of Two Dreadnoughts and Two Scout Cruisers.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Determined Republican efforts to enlarge the building program of the naval appropriation bill as reported from the Naval Committee resulted to-day in the adoption by the House, sitting as a committee of the whole, of an amendment increasing the number of submarines from twenty to fifty. Proposals to provide for six battle cruisers, instead of five, and to add two dreadnoughts and two scout cruisers to the program were defeated after a lively fight.

In order to finish consideration of the bill by the time fixed, 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon, the House had a three-hour session to-day, instead of recessing over Memorial Day, as usual. So decisive were the votes against additional battle and scout cruisers that the bigger navy advocates virtually have decided to abandon the fight for them, but they still hope to get the two battleships. Another attempt will be made when the House returns to regular form on Friday.

The battleship proposal was lost by a narrow margin of sixteen votes, 130 opposing and 114 favoring. Fourteen Democrats voted for the amendment and eight Republicans opposed it. Democrats supporting it were Linthicum, Cody and Price, Maryland; McAndrews, McDermott, Stone and Gallagher, Illinois; Lazaro and Dupre, Louisiana; O'Shaughnessy, Rhode Island; Sherley, Kentucky; Tague, Massachusetts; and Farley and Driscoll, New York. Republicans voting in the negative were: Mondell, Wyoming; Nelson, Wisconsin; Crampton, Michigan; Good, Green, Haugen and Ramseyer, Iowa, and Ellsworth, Minnesota.

VOTE TO INCREASE NUMBER OF SUBMARINES

The vote to increase the submarines was 114 to 104, seventeen Democrats voting for it and no Republicans opposing it. The additional undersea boats would be of the coast defense type, seventeen of which already were provided for by the bill. Many members who have been urging that it would be better to expend money on submarines than on battleships rallied to the support of the amendment, after voting against the battleship proposal. A vote of 109 to 83 defeated the proposal to construct six battle cruisers, instead of five, and the viva voce vote against the proposal to increase the number of scout cruisers from four to six was so overwhelming that a roll call was not sought.

In opposing the proposed increase of battle cruisers, Chairman Padgett, of the Naval Committee, insisted that the Republicans originally planned to demand five such craft, but upon learning that the majority would recommend this number, they decided to insist upon six. Closing of debate at that point prevented an answer from Representative Butler, who is in charge of the bill for the Republican side.

Secretary Daniels was alternately on the floor of the House and in the galleries throughout the session.
